

Cause No. 2022CRB000722L1

The State of Texas,

Plaintiff,

v.

Luis Alexis Gonzalez-Morales,

Defendant.

In the County CourtWebb County, Texas

Notice of Stipulation

This Court has set a pretrial hearing date in this case for August 19, 2022 at 9:00 a.m. At that hearing, Mr. Gonzalez intends to introduce evidence to support, among other things, his motion to dismiss on selective-prosecution grounds and his writ of habeas corpus raising the same claim. To streamline the presentation of evidence, the parties have agreed to stipulate to the following:

The State stipulates that women are not prosecuted for trespass as part of Operation Lone Star, even when they are found trespassing. The defense stipulates that women require separate housing and staffing from adult male detainees

Counsel wanted to give this Court notice about these concessions in advance of the hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Doug Keller
